

A Leading Resource for Business Education

The Business Expert Press Digital Libraries: Beating the high price of textbooks with content for business students and entrepreneurs!

Practical, cutting edge ebooks for the modern student...for reading on any device...accessible directly from course management systems

✓ *Practical treatments of subjects you teach every semester, written for advanced business students -- not entry-level chapters, not research articles, but fully-formed, focused texts that address the issues faced in the modern business world and serve as course readings and reference materials

✓ High-value, concise ebooks, designed for use in the digital environment and with enhanced discovery features built into bibliographic data, and with no restrictions on usage: the freedom to download to multiple devices, to print out whole chapters or even entire books, to upload content to course management systems -- all without limits on the number of concurrent users

✓ Perpetual access for a one-time fee, so future students will be able to use them at no additional cost -- helping you and librarians break the expensive cycle of annual textbook or journal fees

Business Expert Press is a new publisher, delivering concise, born-digital books for advanced business/management students. Our collections are edited by academic thought leaders (see reverse, and visit <http://www.businessexpertpress.com/collections> for more details), and help students put learning into action. Authors tap the modern teaching curriculum to provide course readings and reference materials for upper-level baccalaureate and masters candidates who want practical treatments of the issues you address in your classes -- information they can't find in expensive, entry-level textbooks, or high-priced journals filled with data and primary research.

Ask your librarian to check out the Business Expert Press Digital Libraries and guarantee your students access to content written just for them. For more information, to order, or to request exam copies, visit us at:
